

Additional Instructional Hours for Center for Global Studies

Students who participate in the following optional activities can earn additional instructional hours, according to the chart below.

Language Immersion and Project-based Study Tours

10-day trip: 240 hours

8-day trip: 192 hours

7-day trip: 168 hours

etc.

Service Trips

While students can earn community service hours for these trips, they cannot earn instructional hours for these trips.

After-school Hours

- A. Teaching students at Brookside Arabic, Chinese, and Japanese through Arabic Club, China Bridge, and J-Club

Participation for 10 months, once a week: 45 hours

- B. Participation in an academic club, including Competitive Chinese Bridge or Japan Bowl

Participation for 10 months, once a week: 45 hours

- C. Participation in academic video conferencing with foreign schools

2 hours per conference

Field Trips--hours TBD

- B. Overnight field trips

- C. Local / domestic language immersion trips

- D. Local / domestic cultural or historical trips

- E. Cultural performances or Language speech performances

- F. Academic competitions, including Japan Bowl and Competitive China Bridge